

HIS is the busiest sort of a store—and this engraving department of ours is keeping all hands showing samples and taking orders. Of course we're thankful for it—certainly—but this spirit of activity is more or less due to good workmanship. Our engraving plant is under the supervision of one of the finest all-round engravers in this country—and we're proud, too—proud because this engraving plant is getting bigger, expanding, and your patronage is increasing. The Swell Functions are coming on you know. We'll serve you correctly—and promptly, too. Can we?

COAL TAKES TUMBLE IN LYNCHBURG

Settlement of the Strike Having its Effect on Hill City.

FROM NINE DOLLARS TO SEVEN

On Account of a Serious Accident to the Groom a Marriage Is Postponed.
Mr. Marcus Bull to Go to Petersburg.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., October 18.—The price of coal in Lynchburg has taken a downward course, and is now $7 per ton instead of $9, the price that has obtained for several days. This decrease is due to the fact that the coal is being mined in the soft and not in the hard, and the kind that is mined here generally in Lynchburg than any other, and naturally the reduction will be highly gratifying to residents of the city, the rich and the poor, the white and colored alike. For many persons, $7 was simply prohibitive, and while $9 is regarded as very severe, the decrease will prove most acceptable, particularly as it indicates the tendency of the times, and shows very conclusively that the settlement of the strike trouble in Pennsylvania is having its effect.

A REDUCTION.
The decision to reduce to $7 was reached at a meeting of the coal dealers of Lynchburg held this morning. The prices decided upon at that meeting are as follows: Virginia best, $8; coke, $8; soft coal, lump, $7; $7; R. O. M. coal, $7; in coal, $7.

On account of a serious accident to the prospective groom, invitations to the marriage of Miss Katherine Major, of Claremont, and Mr. Thomas Nelson, of West Virginia, have been recalled. The wedding was to have taken place on last Wednesday. Mr. Nelson was inspecting a number of Western horses that were being offered for sale here, and as he was looking at one of them, and the animal reared up on his hind feet and struck Mr. Nelson a terrible blow on his right arm, fracturing the bone in a most serious manner.

REWARD OF SERVICE.
Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bull, who have been residents of this city for many years, will leave on Monday for Petersburg, where they will make their future home. Mr. Bull has been connected with the express business here for some time, and the Southern Express Company has promoted him to the position of agent at Petersburg.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP

Soldier Was Badly Beaten, but Not Killed—Col. Tabb's Funeral.
(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 18.—The mystery in the case of the Fort Monroe soldier thought to have been killed under the Chesapeake and Ohio bridge at Old Point has been solved. He was Private Boggs, of the Fort, and was fatally beaten and robbed, but not killed.

The Herald Square Opera Company, engaged to open the New Casino Theatre here with four performances, gave two. The remaining two were cancelled, the company failing to come up to contract.

The remains of Colonel Tabb, who died in Philadelphia Thursday night, arrived this morning. The funeral will be held from the Hampton Baptist Church at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Telegrams of condolence have been received from all over the country.

WEBBER AND HADDOW

They Will Be Tried for Same Offense Second Time.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 18.—The case of William Webber and John Haddow, labor organizers, who have again gotten into trouble with the Virginia Coal and Iron Company, will come up for trial in the United States Court at Abingdon Tuesday. Their alleged offense, it is stated, is similar to that for which they were convicted at the United States Court here and sentenced to six months' confinement in jail. They were subsequently pardoned by the President.

In the present case, as in the former, their counsel will be Judge H. M. Ford and Mr. Randolph Harrison, of this city, who will leave for Abingdon to-morrow.

Wednesday Club Rehearsal.

The Wednesday Club will take up its regular rehearsals from now on at the hall of the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Walter C. Mercer, who directed so successfully last year, will again have charge of the chorus, and the orchestra. The play to be presented at the next festival is "Paul" (Gendelstein), which will be the chief work for soloists, chorus and orchestra.

The roll of active members is being perfected, and at this time there is an unusual number of applicants for membership. The secretary requests that all applications be sent to him as soon as possible, and the members are asked to bring the new applicants to the next rehearsal.

This week the rehearsal will be on Monday, instead of Tuesday, the hall having been previously engaged by other parties, and members are asked to take note of the change of date.

Horses and Buggy Damaged.

Two horses belonging to Dr. R. August Nichols were badly injured and a buggy damaged in a collision at Monroe and Broad Streets Friday night. Dr. Nichols had a narrow escape. He was driving across Broad Street at that point and did not see an approaching car. The injury sustained by Dr. Nichols was a cut finger. By good handling the horses were prevented from running away.

Thanksgiving Game.

All the preliminary arrangements for the Thanksgiving Day football game here have been arranged between Messrs. Daniel and Bradley, owners of Broad Street Park, and Mr. R. P. Bell, Jr., assistant manager of the University football team. The game this year will be between the two old rivals, North Carolina and Virginia.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA MAY BE DIVIDED

Annual Session in Norfolk on Tuesday.

COUNCIL IN PHILADELPHIA

Bishop Gibson and Others to Attend. Services in the Churches—Subjects of Dr. Hawthorne—Reception to Be Given Dr. Gardner.

The annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia will begin Tuesday evening next in the First Presbyterian Church of Norfolk. Probably all of the Richmond ministers will be in attendance. They will leave the city Tuesday. Apart from the regular routine of business, the most important matter to come before the synod will be the question of division. A movement will certainly be made on the part of that portion of the body beyond the Blue Ridge to draw off and set up an organization of its own. Sentiment upon this question is pretty well divided, and some lively discussions may be expected. As a rule, the Richmond ministers do not favor the change. So far as can be ascertained, however, they are not disposed to institute any vigorous opposition. They feel that the presbyteries in this part of the state should be allowed to go if they so desire.

The sole reason for the division, so far as is known, is the rather unwieldy size of the Synod of Virginia. Delegates from the territory in West Virginia included in the body that it is expensive and difficult to get to the meetings when they are held, like the present one, in some city of the far East. Hence they wish to draw off and keep near home. The dividing line will be the Blue Ridge.

Several of the Episcopal clergymen of the city are preparing to go this week to Philadelphia, where they will attend the annual meeting of the church missionary Council, which meets Tuesday, and which will, in all probability, prove the most important Episcopal gathering of the year. Bishop R. A. Gibson, of the Diocese of Virginia, will attend, accompanied by his son, Mr. Alexander Gibson, a lay delegate from Virginia; the Rev. J. J. Grubb, rector of Holy Trinity, also a delegate; and the Rev. John Moncreaf, D. D., arch-deacon of the diocese.

Among the other things, the much vexed Mexican question will occupy the attention of the Council. There is a wide difference of opinion as to whether or not the Episcopal Church in Mexico should be established as a separate jurisdiction with its own bishops, converts, etc., or be considered part of the Church in the United States.

On Friday evening, October 24th, the young people of Grace Street Baptist Church will give a reception in honor of their pastor, Rev. C. S. Gardner, D. D., on his first anniversary. The exercises will begin at 8:15 P. M. in the auditorium of the church. Governor Montague and other prominent speakers will make addresses, and an interesting programme of music has been arranged by the new church quartette. After the exercises, a social hour and social reunion will be spent in the lecture-room. All members of the church and friends of the congregation are cordially invited to be present.

Revival services will begin this morning at the First Baptist Church and will continue for several weeks. The Rev. M. L. Roper, D. D., of Spartanburg, S. C., who will assist Dr. Cooper in the meetings, will preach at both services to-day.

Dr. W. R. L. Smith, who will preach as usual at the Second Church this morning, will leave at night for Philadelphia, where on Monday he will read a paper before the Baptist Ministers' Conference. The evening service at the Second Church will be conducted by Dr. James P. Smith, of the Central Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. M. Ashby Jones will preach morning and night at Leigh Street. The usual services will be held at Grace Street by Dr. C. L. Garner. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne will preach in the morning at Grove Avenue on "Show Thyself a Man." "Clouds Without Rain."

At Trinity Methodist Church next Wednesday evening a series of revival services will begin, at which time one of the most distinguished men in the Methodist pulpit will preach. Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., is a divine and is one of the most powerful men in the church.

Invitations have been issued to the students of the two medical colleges and of the Massey and the Smithfield business colleges to attend a reception at Broad Street Methodist Church on Monday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. Refreshments will be served and a short address will be delivered by Professor R. E. Blackwell, president of Randolph-Macon College, and by Miss Frances Leigh Starr, teacher of elocution at the Woman's College.

The Rev. J. O. Babcock will preach morning and night at Fairmount Methodist Episcopal Church. The Rev. George T. Collins, of the Baltimore Conference, will preach morning and night at St. James Methodist Church. The fall rally-day exercises this morning at 10 o'clock. The programme for the occasion is unusually attractive and has been prepared with the view of pleasing alike both old and young. The public is cordially invited.

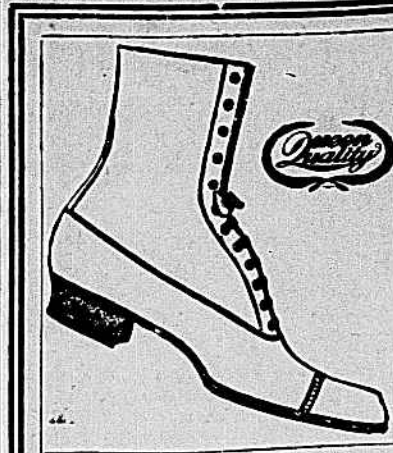

John Hannon will preach every night this week at the Epworth Church, on Randolph Street. The usual services will be held at Trinity by the Rev. George H. Spooner and at Park Place by the Rev. John T. Bosman.

The Rev. W. B. Beauchamp will preach in the morning at Broad Street on "The Life That Gives Light." In the evening his subject will be "Is Your Life Safe?" In the morning at Centenary Dr. W. W. Lear will preach on "A Mind to Work." His subject in the evening will be "Sow the Wind and Reap the Whirlwind."

The Rev. L. B. Betty will preach in the morning at Clay Street on "A Divine and Personal Message." At night his subject will be "The Gracious Invitation of the Gospel."

At the Monumental Episcopal Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock, the rector, Dr. W. E. Evans, will preach a special sermon to the young men of the city, as well as to the young women. The service will be an unusually attractive one. The middle aisle will be reserved for the students, a large attendance of whom is expected.

The Rev. O. B. Sears will preach in the morning at Seventh Street on "The Lord's Supper." In the evening his subject will be "God's Husbandry." The Rev. P. A. Cave will preach at both services at the Third Church. In the morning he will preach on "Officers of

The New Testament Church—Elders, the seventh of a series of sermons on "The New Testament Church."

Dr. R. P. Kerr will preach morning and night at the First Church. The usual services will be held morning and afternoon at the Second Church by Dr. Russell Cecil.

The Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., will preach morning and night at the Church of the Covenant. The Rev. W. S. Plummer Bryan, D. D., is in the city and will preach this morning for Dr. Witherspoon at Grace Street Presbyterian Church. Dr. Bryan is well known here and his many friends will be glad of the opportunity to hear him preach. At night Dr. Witherspoon will preach, and take for his subject "The Sinless Made Sin, and the Sinful Made Righteous."

CONFEDERATE REUNION

A Mammoth Brunswick Stew—Address by D. Gardner Tyler and Others.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
CHARLES CITY, C. H., VA., October 18.—The Harrison-Barwood Camp of Confederate Veterans held their annual reunion at this place yesterday. Lieutenant-Commander Thomas L. Walker presiding. The meeting opened with prayer by the chaplain, Mr. William Woodcock. About twenty members of the camp answered the roll call. The great feature of the occasion was the mighty Brunswick stew prepared on the grounds by some of the veterans. Besides this delicious treat there were many other good things, and a large number of whom were present.

After dinner the crowd was invited into the courthouse to be regaled with anecdotes, both humorous and pathetic, of which the veterans always have a limitless store. The camp was addressed by Hon. D. G. Tyler, Commander Anderson Gill, formerly of Charles City county and member of Charles City Town during the war, and now a resident of Richmond, Va., also by Chaplain Woodcock and others. One of the most pleasant features of the day was the singing of the old Southern war songs—Maryland, My Maryland, "Bona Bonum Flag" and others. It was the large crowd of people of all ages joined in the choruses, there was hardly a dry eye to be seen. Colonel William V. Robins, of Richmond, who was present as the guest of Mrs. H. S. Saunders, met many old friends among the assembled veterans.

Miss John Mitchell, of East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. W. C. Wilcox, Rocky Mount, N. C.; and Colonel William T. Robins, of Richmond, Va., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Saunders, of Upper Shirley.

Miss Hermoine Moore, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Catherine Douthat, of Weyanoke, on the James.

Miss Virginia Douglas Wilcox has been quite sick for the past few days, but is improving. Mr. Montjoy Selden, of Baltimore, has been the guest of his cousin, Mr. F. L. Douthat, of Weyanoke.

MR. HORNER APPOINTED

Succeeds the Late Prof Scott as Principal of the Graded School.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
ATKINS, VA., Oct. 18.—The principalship of the Atkins Graded school, made vacant by the death of Professor Frank B. W. Scott, was to-day filled by the election of Thomas N. Horner, of Bristol, Va.

Mr. Horner comes highly recommended as a scholar, a teacher and an upright Christian gentleman. Mr. Horner and wife will reside in the community. G. W. Calhoun, who has had a bone growth and part of the bone removed from the lower left leg, is getting along as well as possible. Dr. Priddy, of the Southwestern Virginia Hospital, and Dr. Atkins, of Marion, performed the operation.

Masonic Home Auxiliary.

The Masonic Home Auxiliary will meet in the Temple on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The chairman of each committee is requested to bring in a written report of the year's work.

NATIONAL CONVENTION APPALACHIAN FOREST RESERVE.

Asheville, N. C., October 25, 1902. For the above occasion the Southern Railway will sell tickets from all stations south of the Potomac river, in Virginia and North Carolina, to Asheville, N. C., and return, at one rate for the round trip, tickets to be on sale October 23, 24 and 25 with return limit October 27th. This offers a splendid opportunity to those wishing to visit Asheville the beautiful "Land of the Sky" at this time, the most beautiful season of the year.

PLAN ADOPTED FOR CITIZENS' LEAGUE

Body to Meet Here To-Morrow Night

IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Second Mass Meeting to Be Held in the Academy of Music Later On—To Be a Permanent Organization, Co-operate With Officers.

There will be no set programme for the mass meeting of citizens to be held at the Chamber of Commerce to-morrow night. The committee, consisting of John Garland Pollard, chairman; J. D. Crump, John C. Freeman, Dr. J. N. Upshur and Hon. James W. Gordon, have decided that it would be best for the interest of the proposed organization to abandon for the time the original plan of having a mass meeting at the Academy of Music. This conclusion was reached because it was thought the urgent business now necessary to be transacted by the organization could be better accomplished at the Chamber of Commerce than at the Academy. The meeting at the latter place would be necessarily more formal, and what the promoters of the League desire at this time is a full and free opportunity for discussion and conference.

AT THE ACADEMY.

A large mass meeting will probably be held later at the Academy of Music. All who are interested in the objects of the organization are invited to be present to-morrow night, and no special invitations have been sent out. The committee has had printed five thousand membership slips, on which it is proposed to enroll members. Active committees will be set to work at once to enlist every voter in the city who is in sympathy with the movement. The name and address of all such will be carefully preserved, and they will be kept in touch with the movements of the Executive Committee, in whom the management of the organization will be vested.

WILL GROW FAST.

There is great popular interest in the movement, and there seems to be no doubt that many thousands will be enrolled in the ranks of the League. An erroneous idea is prevalent concerning the purposes for which the organization is to exist. Its leaders have no idea of any prohibition campaign. They will, however, stand by the officers in the enforcement of the law, and will see that they are not injured by the influence of the lawless element in this city.

It is not known what subjects will be brought up for discussion Monday night. The resolution offered by Mr. John B. Minor, Jr., calling for an investigation of the charges in the report of the grand jury, and the Crenshaw high license ordinance are now uppermost in the minds of the subjects were discussed. At any rate, there is no doubt of the fact that the meeting will be largely attended and full of interest.

THE PLAN PROPOSED.

The following plan of organization will be presented for the consideration of the meeting:

ARTICLE I.

This organization shall be known as the Law and Order League, of Richmond, Va.

ARTICLE II.

The business of the league shall be to suppress vice and to arouse and foster public sentiment for the maintenance of good order and the enforcement of law.

1. By encouraging, supporting and aiding all officers of the law in the faithful performance of their duties.

2. By bringing to the notice of the people of unfaithful or incompetent officials, whether selected by the people, by the Council, or by municipal boards.

3. By securing the enactment of such additional laws as will promote the moral well doing of the community.

ARTICLE III.

All male citizens of Richmond, twenty-one years of age and over, who are in sympathy with the objects of the league, shall be eligible to membership, and shall be enrolled as members by the secretary upon their request.

ARTICLE IV.

There shall be no fees or dues.

The officers of the league shall consist of a president, vice-president, and secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the Executive Committee, and who shall perform the duties usually pertaining to their respective offices.

ARTICLE VI.

The management shall be vested in an Executive Committee of twenty-one members, who shall be elected annually by the league, who shall fill any vacancies arising in their membership or in any office, and who shall retain their office until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE VII.

The league shall meet at least once a year, and often upon the call of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall meet on the call of the president, or at the request of three members of the committee. Seven members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

THE RADFORD FAIR

Was a Splendid Financial Success—Handsome Money Prizes.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
EAST RADFORD, VA., October 18.—The second annual District Fair at Radford came to a successful end yesterday. The gate receipts have paid the association out of debt and have left a handsome surplus to be applied to the betterment of the grounds and buildings. Not an accident marred the pleasure of the fair.

The horsemen met and passed resolutions declaring their appreciation of the universal fair and courteous treatment accorded to them by the management, and especially of Mr. H. C. Tyler, the secretary, and expressed the desire that he be continued in that position.

The cattle parade was the feature of to-day, and was composed of the principal prize winners in the three leading classes and breeds.

Major John T. Cowan war between four and five hundred dollars in prize money for the Shorthorns, Mr. S. W. Anderson, of Glenbert, West Virginia, won about $50 in premiums on his famous herd of Herefords.

Major Eutell and J. P. K. Bell, of Pulaski, carried off premiums up to the hundreds, while the best bull of all was the property of Mr. Dick George, of Smyth.

The herd from the Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg carried off several hundred dollars in prize money.

Most of the Shorthorn premiums went to the great Southwest, but in nearly every case the judges might have placed the ribbons in the dark, so high had the different classes been bred. All were of a distinct type, and were more a matter of taste than anything else.

The firm of Cassell and Pryor offered a fine chafing dish for the best reply to a published love letter, which was won by Miss Anna Virginia Cuthbert, of East Orange, New Jersey, who has been spending the summer with Mrs. William Ingles.

The annual tournament ball was led by Mr. W. Rosentfelt, with Miss Irving Williams, of Radford, Mr. Frank Cassell, of East Orange, and Miss Mary Mae Ingles, of Radford, was crowned queen of love and beauty by Mr. Hammett Chumbley, the successful knight in the tournament.

Miss Laura Ingles, sister of the queen, was crowned maid of honor. Twenty-three couples participated. The Roanoke Machine Works band furnished delightful music for the occasion.

The gentlemen's driving contest of to-day was won by Mr. John Buford, of Pulaski, and Mr. Dick Kelly, of Smyth, won the premium for the best pair of driving horses.

The prettiest baby at the woman's fair was the little bright-eyed cherub building was the little bright-eyed cherub of Mrs. L. L. Lucas, of East Radford. The room in the woman's building was very attractive, and contained many fine paintings. Conspicuous among them was the fine oil portrait of ex-Governor Tyler. Miss Elizabeth Simpson was awarded the prize for the best oil painting.
